

In Spring 2016 after the 2015-2016 catalog had gone to print, the Registrar was notified that the course description of PHIL 2010 was slightly wrong due to a course number change. See addendum in red.

PHIL 2010 Social and Political Philosophy (4 sem. hours). An introduction to theories and problems of social and political organization, with special emphasis on the concepts of government, justice, punishment, family, property, work, and peace. This course is the same as PLSC 2800. Offered occasionally.