

Frequently Asked Questions

1) What are the costs for a BSC student at Millsaps?

A: Millsaps is committed to the completion of your degree with no additional costs beyond what finishing at BSC would have cost. To that end, your net tuition and fees (exclusive of federal aid, which is determined by the US Department of Education) at Millsaps will be no more than it was at BSC, within the parameters of Millsaps' financial aid policy, which requires living on campus to receive maximum financial aid.

In addition, Millsaps College offers three convenient payment plans to provide a flexible and cost-effective way to manage college expenses. Our student account representatives are here to assist you in managing your financial arrangements. For more information, visit Student Billing & Payment Options or contact our team at 601-974-1100 or Business.Office@millsaps.edu.

2) What opportunities are there for student athletes?

A: Birmingham-Southern student-athletes in academic good standing and eligible to compete at the NCAA level will be immediately eligible to compete in their sport at Millsaps. Click HERE to get in touch with the head coach of your sport or call Susan Margaret Barrett, our dedicated transfer counselor at 601-974-1064 or email her.

3) What is campus life like at Millsaps?

A: Millsaps College sits on 100 acres in the heart of Mississippi's capital city of Jackson. The majority of our students choose to live on campus and experience events such as class traditions, crawfish boils, Homecoming events and Major Madness week.

As you know from your BSC experience, college is about more than just academics. It's about finding yourself and creating lasting connections. At Millsaps, you find a vibrant, tight-knit community. Check out some of our favorite spots on campus with our 360° spotlight tour.

Whether it's meeting friends for lunch between classes, celebrating Diwali alongside our South Asian students or participating in intramurals, Millsaps students enjoy their time both inside and outside of the classroom.

Millsaps makes finding your squad easy. We offer activities built around residence life, spiritual life and student life. Find others who share your interests when you get involved in campus recreation, Greek life, student leadership or numerous other student activities.

4) Do you have fraternities and sororities on campus?

A: Millsaps fraternity and sorority life is a thriving mix of social, academic and service-oriented activities. There are five sorority and seven fraternity chapters at Millsaps. The chapters are all members of well-established international Greek-letter organizations representing the Panhellenic Council (Panhellenic), Interfraternity Council (IFC) and National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC).
