

TITLE IX: COMPLIANCE TRAINING

AUGUST 7, 2024

STATISTICS

- Among undergraduate students, 26.4% of females and 6.8% of males experience rape or sexual assault through physical force, violence, or incapacitation.²
- 5.8% of students have experienced stalking since entering college.²
- Male college-aged students (18-24) are 78% more likely than non-students of the same age to be a victim of rape or sexual assault.¹
- Female college-aged students (18-24) are 20% less likely than non-students of the same age to be a victim of rape or sexual assault.¹
- Only 20% of female student victims, age 18-24, report to law enforcement.
- 21% of transgender, genderqueer, nonconforming (TGQN) college students have been sexually assaulted, compared to 18% of non-TGQN females and 4% of non-TGQN males.¹⁷
- Each year, more than 1 in 10 students are assaulted on their college campuses.^[2] These incidents can range from harassment and stalking to nonconsensual touching and rape.
- More than 50% of college sexual assaults occur in either August, September, October, or November.⁴
- Students are at an increased risk during the first few months of their first and second semesters in college.⁴

WHAT IS TITLE IX?

CONSENT

FREELY GIVEN

Both partners have the freedom to say yes or no. Consent does not involve any type of pressure, force, or manipulation.

REVERSIBLE

Anyone can change their mind at anytime -- even if you are in the middle of the affection.

INFORMED

Both partners need to know exactly what they are consenting to every single time.

ENTHUSIASTIC

Both partners should be excited and very much interested in what is happening. If they are not STOP immediately.

SPECIFIC

Each individual affection requires consent each time. Even if you have done it before.

MILLSAPS' RESPONSIBILITIES

- Conduct trainings
- Take prompt and effective action to stop harassment, eliminate a hostile environment and address its effects
- Adopt equitable grievance procedures
- Use preponderance of evidence and a reasonable person standard (more likely to be true than not true)
- Conduct investigations separate from and independent of any criminal investigation or proceeding
- When a matter falls within our jurisdiction - strive to complete an investigation in 60 days from the time we learn about an issue
- Designate Title IX Coordinators
